Class of 2013 Secondary Special Education Transcript Analysis Form

AUSL's residency program offers the opportunity for qualified candidates to earn both an initial Illinois Secondary Teaching Certificate (Type 09) in a core content area along with a supplemental endorsement in Special Education. Residents choosing this option are placed with an Special Education teacher which teaches their specific content area.

In order to be eligible for this path, your transcript must meet the full core academic content area requirements. Thus, you will need to obtain your initial certification in one of the core academic content areas (English Language Arts, Spanish, Mathematics, Science, and Social Science - as preparation for teaching History).

The below coursework reflect state requirements to get certified in the state of Illinois. Referencing your transcripts, fill it out to the best of your ability and return to AUSL. National Louis University will provide a formal coursework evaluation prior to entrance into the program.
